from pauline elizabeth hopkins s 1879 musical peculiar sam to lynn nottage s 2021 musical mj the black musical does not get the credit it deserves for sustaining the genre we know and love this introductory book is devoted to representative african american perspectives in musical theatre from the literature of slavery and freedom 1746 1865 to the contemporary period offering the reader case studies of what the black musical is how it works and why it matters based on glover s experience teaching black musical theatre at a conservatory and in the liberal arts he draws his close readings of eubie blake pauline elizabeth hopkins and charlie smalls from theory and practice moreover glover investigates how the ballet the musical comedy the opera the play with music and the revue are similar and different narrative sub genres finally the book reflect on issues such as blackface minstrelsy the chitlin circuit non traditional casting and yellowface published in the topics in musical theatre series this short book gives the reader new ways of seeing the aesthetically and politically capacious category of black musical theatre from an anti racist approach
