a century of policy mistakes ruined america s cities and created an unprecedented housing crisis for many families homelessness is no longer someone else s problem it is right around the corner a real threat in their own immediate future our housing crisis is the result of a long history of government policies court cases and political manipulation while these disparate causes make up a tangled web they have one surprising root the attack on private property rights for more than a century government policies and court decisions have attacked undermined and eroded private property rights whether it be exclusionary zoning eminent domain abuse rent control or excessive environmental regulations the cumulative impact of these assaults on private property is that it s become increasingly difficult or even impossible to build adequate housing supplies to meet market demands we are fast approaching a time when millions of typical americans will quite literally have nowhere to live nowhere to live the hidden story of america s housing crisis takes readers through the history of how we got here with stories going back to the civil war the early twentieth century and the ill fated urban renewal movement of the 1950s nowhere to live reveals how the government layered mistake upon mistake to create the current crisis it also provides a way out not by government fiat but through the restoration of

private property rights
